5th Annual
Late Medieval France and Burgundy Seminar

1-2 December 2017

Old Class Library, 69 South Street
University of St Andrews

The 5th Annual Late Medieval France and Burgundy Seminar brings together scholars of all disciplines who focus on any aspect of France and Burgundy in the 14th and 15th centuries.

Contact: Justine Firnhaber-Baker
jmfb@st-andrews.ac.uk
5th Annual
Late Medieval France and Burgundy Seminar
1-2 December 2017
Old Class Library, 69 South Street
University of St Andrews

Friday 1st

9:00-9:30 Registration and coffee

9:30-11:00
Emily Guerry, ‘Archbishop Cornut and the translation of the Crown of Thorns relic from Constantinople to Paris: Diplomacy, ceremony, and the creation of a new royal cult’

Agnès Bos, ‘Late Medieval and Early Modern Furniture in France: a form of ‘Renaissance Gothic’?’

11:00-11:15 Pause café

11:15-12:45
Trevor Smith, ‘The Political and Military Reputation of David II “the Defecator”, King of the Scots, in English and French Historical Literature, 1327–77’

Rémy Ambühl, ‘Joan of Arc as prisonnière de guerre’

12:45-1:45 Lunch & poster session

1:45-3:15
Vicky Turner, ‘Diabolical Damsels: Contextualising the Saracen Temptress in Late Medieval Crusade Narratives’

Emma Campbell, ‘In the Cut: Reading Mutilation in Philippe de Rémi’s La Manekine’

3:15-3:30 Pause

3:30-5:00
Lindy Grant, ‘Blanche of Castile, Saint Louis, and the concept of a family mausoleum: Saint Denis, Royaumont, Maubuisson and Poissy’

Charlotte Crouch, ‘Carrying the Bishop (or not): Demonstrations of Strength and Power by Counts and Countesses in Thirteenth Century Burgundy’
Saturday 2\textsuperscript{nd}

9:00-9:30 Coffee

9:30-11:00
AN, BN, and Beyond: Erika, Kirstin, Agnès

11:00-11:15 Pause café

11:15-12:45
Pierre Courroux, ‘A French rhymed chronicle of the late 14th century: the chronicle of Sylvestre Budes’

Michael DePreter, ‘Noble Agents, Merchant Interests, and Princely Diplomacy. The Anglo-Burgundian Treaties of 1468 and 1496 as a Mirror of Burgundian State-Building’

12:45-2:00 Lunch & Poster session

2:00-3:00
Ralph Moffat

3:30 Mine visit

Contact: Justine Firnhaber-Baker
jmfb@st-andrews.ac.uk